Bible Talks

By Renowned Bible Scholar
Madelon Maupin

Friday, May 18 · 7-9 p.m.

Luke: Revealing God's Universal Embrace

The evangelist-historian who wrote both Luke's Gospel and the author's second volume, Acts of the Apostles, is the only Gentile writer of the entire Bible, yet these two books constitute over one-quarter of the New Testament. Luke is filled with unique parables, dramatic healings, and a message of the universality of the Master Christian's teachings. Join us as we explore its structure, message and overall importance to the larger Christian story.

Saturday, May 19 · 9-4 p.m.

Revelation: Unpacking its Heavenly Symbols

As one of only two apocalyptic texts in our Bible, Revelation has been a "head-scratcher" for centuries. This final book in the New Testament is filled with coded language and veiled allusions to kingdoms both of this world and beyond. By exploring the historical, political, social, religious and cultural practices, and especially symbols, we begin to see the meaning of so many Old Testament allusions and prophecy that fill its chapters. Revelation is the Bible's strongest statement on spiritual warfare—one we want to understand in our own spiritual journey.

Cost and Registration

Friday's session is $20, Saturday's is $20 for each of the morning and afternoon sessions. Attend both days for $45, saving $15. Sunday School students are welcome at no charge. Sandwich lunch $10 from New Seasons. Please register by May 6 to reserve your spot! Send registration and check with the attached form.
